

Job Opportunity Director Fundraising

Nriyagram is looking for a Director Fundraising & Donor Relationships, who will conceptualise, design and administer a fundraising plan to sustain and grow Nriyagram to its fullest potential.

About Nriyagram

A Gurukula in today's times, Nriyagram is a unique dance village, school and company. Following this ancient system of living and learning, it draws from a rich philosophical construct, form and technique of a 2000-year-old dance tradition, Odissi. A vibrant community set in Hesaraghatta near Bangalore, Nriyagram's dance flourishes and is blessed by living close to nature.

About the Role

- Understand the Mission and Vision of Nriyagram and help realise our ambition of bringing arts to public discourse and creating a mindset amongst the general public of championing the arts.
- Administer the Fund-raising plan independently and eventually build a team to work with you.
- Create a database of existing and potential donors, network actively, devise proposals, make pitches, curate fundraising events, and develop campaigns to raise funds.
- Use IT programmes and applications for donor management.
- Increase participation of Trustees - past and present, in the fundraising plan.
- You will work primarily with Lynne Fernandez, Managing Trustee Nriyagram. Like most arts organisations Nriyagram is a collective, which will require interdepartmental interaction in order to fully understand the scope and levels of fundraising required.

This job is based in Bangalore. Initially you will immerse yourself in the Nriyagram life to understand and assimilate its philosophy, culture, work, people and the wider community. Then you can work at our city office or live and work at Nriyagram.

Travel will be required.

Remuneration: 5 - 8 Lakhs per annum (commensurate with experience)

Start Date: 9 November 2019

About the Person

- You are passionate about the arts and aspire to create lasting impact in the field.
- You take ownership of your place of work, have an entrepreneurial approach, are innovative, and driven by success.
- You know how to Ask.
- You have minimum 5 years of experience in Mobilising Resources for Non-Profits / the Arts / Corporates.

Email lynne@nriyagram.org along with:

- Your detailed CV
- Note on why this is of interest to you

Application Deadline 30 August 2019

